

Condolence Message

Teaching and Non-teaching staff of the Centre for Distance and Online Education (formerly Directorate of Distance Education) at the University of Kashmir express their profound sorrow at the sad demise of their esteemed former Director and colleague, Professor Neelofar Khan, on the 28th of August, 2024.

In this moment of grief, the members of the Centre extend their deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family. They offer prayers for the eternal peace of the departed soul and for strength and fortitude to be granted to her loved ones during this difficult time.

Professor Neelofar Khan's passing has left a deep void in the hearts of her colleagues and the academic community. The members of the Centre for Distance and Online Education are united in their mourning and pray that the family finds the courage to bear this irreplaceable loss.

Professor Neelofar Khan served the University of Kashmir with distinction, holding several key positions throughout her illustrious career. Her leadership and dedication were exemplified in her roles as Director of the Centre for Distance and Online Education, Director of the Directorate of Lifelong Learning, and Coordinator of the National Service Scheme (NSS).

Professor Khan's contributions to the university were vast and impactful, leaving an indelible mark on the institution and its community. Her commitment to education and service has inspired many and will remain remembered with deep respect and admiration.