Part – V: Programme Project Report (PPR) and Self –Learning Material (SLM)

5.1: Compliance Status of Guidelines on Programme Project Report (PPR) as per Annexure-V of UGC (ODL and Online Programmes) Regulations 2020. The Centre for Distance and Online Education adheres to the norms prescribed under Annexure-V of UGC (ODL) and Online Programmes Regulations 2020 with regard to the Preparation of Programme Project Report (PPR). The PPRs developed by the Centre has the following components as per the regulations.

The main components of compliance report are as follows:

- Programme Project Reports (PPRs) for all proposed ODL/Online programmes have been prepared and approved by the competent statutory bodies.
- Each PPR clearly defines Programme Objectives, Programme Outcomes, and Course Outcomes in line with outcome-based education (OBE) principles.
- Curriculum structure, credit distribution, and syllabi are detailed in the PPR as per UGC credit norms and LOCF (Learning Outcome-based Curriculum Framework) guidelines.
- Each PPR includes a strategy for the preparation, development, and delivery of Self-Learning Material (SLM) in multiple formats, with over 60% content developed in-house.
- Information on academic staff, learner support centers, delivery mechanisms, and academic counseling is documented as part of the PPR.
- The PPR includes admission procedures, eligibility criteria, evaluation methods, and mechanisms for continuous and term-end assessments.
- Internal mechanisms for academic quality assurance, monitoring, and review of the programme are mentioned in the PPR.
- All PPRs and associated learning materials have undergone plagiarism checks to ensure originality and academic integrity.

The PPRs are placed before the CIQA Committee for approval purposes as per the ODL regulations and other competent bodies of the University.
