

Name:- _____
Class:- _____
Institute:- New Bonvivant English School
Skill:- Skill of Probing Questions
Date:- _____
Content:- General awareness
Time:- 10 minutes
Teach/Reteach:- Teach

Teachers Activity	Students Activity	Components used
"Good morning" Students	"Good Morning Maam"
What is waste Can you tell me?	Waste is anything that we throw away because we don't need them.	Prompting
How waste is formed?	Human activities produce waste. waste comes from houses, schools, industries etc.	Seeking further information
What are the types of wastes?	Bio-degradable wastes and non-biodegradable wastes.	Prompting

Teacher's Signature : _____

S No	Components	Ratings	Tally
1.	Prompting questions	0, 1, 2, 3, 4, (5), 6
2.	Seeking of further information	0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, (6)
3.	Re-focussing	0, 1, 2, 3, 4, (5), 6
4.	Redirect questions	0, 1, 2, 3, 4, (5), 6
5.	Increased critical awareness questions	0, 1, 2, 3, 4, (5), 6

Total = 26

No of components = $26/5 = 5.2$ (very good)

Teachers Activity	Students Activity	Components used
How can you make difference between biodegradable & non biodegradable waste? Give examples of biodegradable & non-biodegradable wastes? Can waste be recycled? What do you mean by Recycling of waste Is Recycling important How?	The wastes which can be broken down to smaller subst by action of microorganisms are biodegradable & which can't be broken are non biodegradable wastes. Biodegradable - News papers, Domestic Sewage etc. Yes Putting into new use unwanted things or waste material. Yes, it helps to maintain clean and healthy environment as well as to conserve natural resources.	Reprocessing Seeking further information. Prompting Prompting Seeking further information.