One Day Induction-Cum-Orientation Program Proceedings B.Ed. Trainees 23rd April 2024

The Centre for Distance and Online Education conducted a one-day induction-cum-orientation programme on 23rd April 2024 in the Conference Hall of the Centre. Dr. Syed Ishfaq, Assistant Professor, conducted the proceedings of the Orientation programme. Prof. Shawkat Ahmed Shah, Director, Centre for Distance and Online Education, welcomed the august gathering. In his illuminating speech, he highlighted the role of Distance Education in fulfilling the societal obligation of "Reaching the Unreached". He said that the Centre is committed to creating a vibrant Distance Education System where an inquisitive distant learner finds the right ambience to have a mind opened by wonder rather than the one closed by a myopic outlook. He advised the learners to sit and do serious homework to complete the assigned tasks within the stipulated time. He recognized the learners as a part of an extended family of Distance Education. Prof. Tariq Ahmed Chisthi, former Dean and Director, School of Open Learning, presented a historical journey of the Centre from sapling to a shady Chinar before the audience. He said that the Centre is committed to provide excellent-student-support to its learners. He said that the beauty of the Distance Education System lies in its self-reliant nature, where a learner can work and study simultaneously. He impressed upon the learners to gain mastery over the basic teaching skills. Prof. Mushtaq Ahmed Dar, Dean School of Open Learning, stressed upon the learners to follow the Professional Code of Conduct for teachers in letter and spirit. He impressed upon the learners to uphold the ethical obligations of the Profession because they are in a serious job of man-making process. He said that there are no shortcuts to success. He impressed upon the learners to display utmost rigor and seriousness while being groomed in the hybrid mode. Dr. Majid Zaman, Controller of Examinations, said the examination wing will issue an Examination Calendar for the B.Ed. learners, which will be followed by letter and spirit. He committed to the learners that their degrees would be completed on time. In his valuable remarks, the chief guest of the occasion Prof. F.A Masoodi said that a teacher without students is like a fish without water. A lamp can never light another lamp unless it continues to burn in its own flame. He said that Education is a lifelong process; the highly valuable resource of institution is its honest and serious learners. He focused on learners to reap "time management skills". Dr. Javaid A. Pujju, Assistant Professor of Education, delivered the vote of thanks. He said that the Centre is committed to providing single-window-information student services to its learners and improving the Centre's workflow management system to make it prompt and deliverable. In the technical session, Prof. Arbind Kumar Jha delivered a detailed online presentation about the philosophy of distance education. He focused on collaborative and student networking through technological intervention so that Distance Education could reach the maximum number of clients without sacrificing the essence of quality. Dr. Habibullah Shah, Assistant Professor and Coordinator B.Ed. gave a detailed power point presentation about the modulus operandi of B.Ed. Programme, course execution and student-centred initiatives by the Centre. Dr. Showkat Rashid Wani, Assistant Professor, concluded the session by summarizing the day's proceedings.
